

Knightline

VOLUME 39 • NUMBER 1 • JANUARY 4, 2021

Weekly news for Knights around the world

As we ring in the new year, we look forward to new opportunities, new resolutions and even new careers.

For those Knights looking for an innovative path, a career as a Knights of Columbus field agent may be the answer. In this issue, we explore what it means to carry on the legacy of our founder, Blessed Michael McGivney, as a field agent.

Are you looking for a new career?

Match your faith with your career as a Knights of Columbus field agent. Not only will you work for a company founded by a priest on the path to sainthood, you'll be working for a Fortune 1000 company with an A+ (Superior) rating from A.M. Best (as of January 2020) and more than $100 billion life insurance in force. EXPLORE A NEW CAREER

Reach your potential as a Knights of Columbus Field Agent

'Miracle Dad' on being an agent

Little 5-year-old Mikey Schachle is well known to many Knights because, through the intercession of Blessed Michael McGivney, he survived an otherwise fatal condition. But did you know Mikey's father, Dan, is a K of C general agent? Dan shared with us what it means to be able to pair his faith with his profession. READ MORE

Image by Spirit Juice Studios

Field agent shares an emotional message

Last year, Matthew Seltzer, a K of C field agent in New Mexico, welcomed one of his friends into the Knights. The friend, a recent retiree, was excited to dedicate more time to serve the Church and to have an insurance policy through the Knights. Little did he know that his new brother Knight would die from COVID-19 only weeks later. READ MORE

Strategies for success in the second half of the fraternal year

Mark your calendar for a webinar on Jan. 21 where members of our Fraternal Mission staff will share tips on how to publicize your council's good works in the second half of the fraternal year. REGISTER NOW

Agents bring Coats for Kids in Canada

Image by Spirit Juice Studios

Agents in Ontario annually team up with local councils to bring new winter coats for kids in need in their community. Over the years, they have distributed thousands of coats and impacted thousands of lives. READ MORE

48th March for Life in Washington, D.C.

Knights will be among those attending the national March for Life in Washington, D.C., on Jan. 29. For more information on the 2021 March for Life, click here to visit the official website. Can't make it to D.C.? Keep an eye on Knightline this month and visit kofc.org/march to learn about other ways you can stand up for life.

Are you ready to pick up your cross?

All Knights are welcome to attend a virtual men's retreat organized by the Tennessee Knights on Jan. 9. Titled "Men of the Cross," the retreat is designed to help men carry their cross daily and follow Christ. Speakers will include Bishop Mark Spalding of Nashville, Deputy Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly, members of the K of C Supreme Office staff, and more. REGISTER NOW

Do you like what you see in Knightline?

Forward it to Catholic men interested in the Knights. You can also share your questions, feedback and story by emailing knightline@kofc.org.

Any links to third-party sites outside of the Knights of Columbus are provided for information purposes only. This is not an endorsement of the service providers.

What makes a career with K of C Insurance special?

- Match your faith with your career
- Set your own work schedule
- Limitless earning potential
- Noncontributory pension plan
- Performance incentives

To learn more about a career as a K of C field agent, click here.