Grand Knight's Report

- Mike has spoken with Melissa Reed from Gibault/Campagna and met with Cardinal Stritch leadership. Ideally, a few members from each Council would be needed to complete some of the inside tasks. We will reimburse Gibault/Campagna for supplies that they purchase for this event. Brian Muller informed us that he can get painting materials (not paint) at cost through work.
- Mike is still attempting to set a date with Jim Cassoday, Fraternal Benefits Rep, to hold an informational meeting with anyone interested.
- The Griffith Council is hosting a regional 'huddle' for councils to obtain information updates from State on Sunday, March 10th from 1-4. All Councils are expected to have representation,
- The State Convention is May 17-19 in Bloomington.
- Mike asked if we should participate in the Tootsie Roll Drive this year. The consensus was that we should. Mike will get further information.
- March 23rd is the Brews, Brackets and Bros in the Oasis Room starting at 1pm. This is open to any male over 21. RSVP needs to be made on Pastors Toolbox.
